Bennazar Zequeira (the “Bennazar Certification”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, and respectfully represents as follows:

Preliminary Statement

Bennazar has served as counsel to the Retiree Committee since June 16, 2017. The Retiree Committee represents approximately 167,000 retired employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“Commonwealth” or “Puerto Rico”) and various Commonwealth agencies and instrumentalities and their surviving beneficiaries, including Puerto Rico’s retired teachers, police officers, firefighters, judges, municipal clerks, engineers, and other government workers of all categories, who hold accrued pension benefits on account of having participated in the Employee Retirement System (the “ERS”), the Teachers Retirement System (the “TRS”), and/or the Judiciary Retirement System (the “JRS”), among other potential post-employment benefits (the “Retirees”). The pensions of the Retirees, along with those held by currently active employees who have participated in the ERS, TRS, and/or JRS, were collectively underfunded by at least $50 billion. The Retirees are the largest group of creditors in these title III cases.

During the Interim Period, Bennazar performed a variety of legal services that were necessary and appropriate for the efficient and economical resolution of the Retiree Committee’s interests in the Title III Cases. This includes, among other things: meeting and conferring with the Retiree Committee; providing expertise on the Puerto Rico Civil Code and civil legal system, public sector retiree benefits law, and constitutional law; advising the Retiree Committee of its powers and duties; advising the Retiree Committee regarding proposed modifications to the pensions, healthcare, and other accrued retirement benefits of Puerto Rico's public-employment retirees; representing the Retiree Committee at court hearings involving matters pertaining to the Retirees; preparing motions, applications, orders, and other legal papers on behalf of the Retiree Committee; advising the Retiree Committee with respect to bankruptcy, labor, employee benefits, and litigation issues concerning the Retirees.

Bennazar's work during the Interim Period was necessary for, and beneficial to, the Retirees and served to ensure that the interests of the Retirees were properly represented and safeguarded in these Title III Cases. Bennazar respectfully requests that the Court award the fees and expenses requested in this Application.

Jurisdiction

The United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the "Court") has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a).

Venue is proper pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a).

Bennazar makes this Application pursuant to PROMESA sections 316 and 317, Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a) and 503(b), Bankruptcy Rule 2016, Local Rule 2016-1, the Retention Order, the Interim Compensation Order, and the UST Guidelines.

Background

On May 3, 2017, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the "Commonwealth"), by and through the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the "FOMB"), as the Commonwealth's representative pursuant to section 315(b) of PROMESA, filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

On May 5, 2017, the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”), by and through the FOMB, as COFINA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

On May 21, 2017, the Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority (“HTA”), by and through the FOMB, as HTA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

On May 21, 2017, the Employees Retirement System for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“ERS”), by and through the FOMB, as ERS’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

On July 3, 2017, the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (“PREPA”), by and through the FOMB, as PREPA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

On September 27, 2019, the Puerto Rico Buildings Authority (“PBA”), by and through the FOMB, as PBA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

Through Orders of this Court, the Title III Cases are jointly administered for procedural purposes only, pursuant to PROMESA section 304(g) and Bankruptcy Rule 1015. [See Dkt. Nos. 242, 537, 1417, 8829.]

On May 5, 2017, the Ad Hoc Committee for the Protection of Accrued Retirement Benefits of Puerto Rico’s Public Employees and Retirees (the “Ad Hoc Retiree Committee”) filed a motion seeking the appointment of an official committee of retired employees. [Dkt. No. 8.] On May 19, 2017, Guy G. Gebhardt, then-Acting United States Trustee for Region 21 (the “U.S.

Trustee") filed a response in opposition to the Ad Hoc Retiree Committee's motion. [Dkt. No. 192.]

On June 15, 2017, U.S. Trustee, pursuant to section 1102(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, appointed the Retiree Committee, consisting of the following nine individuals: Blanca Paniagua, Carmen Nunez, José Marin, Juan Ortiz, Lydia Pellet, Marcos A. Lopez, (Retired) Judge Miguel Fabre, Milagros Acevedo, and Rosario Pacheco. [Dkt. No. 340.]⁷

Bennazar's Retention and Fee Request

On June 16, 2017, the Retiree Committee elected to employ Bennazar to represent the Retiree Committee.

On July 19, 2017, the Retiree Committee filed its Application for an Order Approving the Employment of Bennazar, García & Milián, C.S.P. [Dkt. No. 683] (the "Retention Application") pursuant to section 105(a) and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code.⁸

On August 10, 2017, the Court entered the Retention Order approving Bennazar's retention as counsel to the Retiree Committee, effective June 16, 2017, on the terms and conditions identified in the Retention Application. A copy of the Retention Order is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Pursuant to the Retention Order, Bennazar is entitled to compensation for reasonable, actual, and necessary professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with the Title III Cases.

⁷ As of April 12, 2018, José Marin resigned from the Retiree Committee.

⁸ In a chapter 11 case, a committee appointed under section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code ordinarily would seek authority to employ counsel pursuant to section 328. Because PROMESA does not incorporate section 328 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Retiree Committee moved for approval of its Retention Application pursuant to sections 105(a) and 1103(a). See PROMESA § 301(a) (omitting Bankruptcy Code sections 327 and 328 from incorporation into PROMESA).

The rates set forth

As set forth in the Bennazar Certification, all the services for which interim compensation is sought herein were rendered for and on behalf of the Retiree Committee in connection with these Title III cases. To the best of the Bennazar's knowledge and as disclosed in the Declaration of A. J. Bennazar In Support Of Application of the Official Committee of Retired Employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico for Order Approving the Employment of Bennazar, García & Milián, C.S.P. [Dkt. No. 683, Ex. A] (the "Bennazar Declaration"), Bennazar is a "disinterested person" as defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specified in the Bennazar Declaration, Bennazar's partners, associates, and special attorneys do not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Retiree Committee.

Bennazar might have in the past represented, might currently represent, and likely in the future will represent parties in interest in these cases in connection with matters unrelated to the Retiree Committee or the Title III Cases. In the Bennazar Declaration, Bennazar disclosed its connections to parties in interest in the Title III Cases that it has been able to ascertain using reasonable efforts. Bennazar will update such disclosures, as appropriate, if Bennazar becomes aware of relevant and material new information.

Bennazar performed the services for which it is seeking compensation on behalf of the Retiree Committee and not on behalf of any other committee, creditor, or other entity.

Bennazar has not received payment or promise of payment from any source other than the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico as debtor in the Title III Cases, for services provided or to be provided to the Retiree Committee in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the Title III Cases.

Bennazar does not share fees with any attorneys except to the extent permitted by section 504 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Fees and Expenses Incurred During Interim Period

A. Customary Billing Disclosures

Bennazar's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Bennazar fairly for the work of its attorneys and to cover fixed and routine expenses. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure utilized by Bennazar in these Title III Cases are equivalent to the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure used by Bennazar for similar complex corporate, contractual litigation and restructuring matters, whether in court or otherwise, irrespective of whether a fee application is required. The rates and rate structure reflect that such complex matters often are multi-jurisdictional in scope and typically involve great complexity, high stakes, and intense time pressures.

In the ordinary course of Bennazar's practice, Bennazar maintains records of the time spent on the professional services provided to the Retiree Committee. Below is a summary of fees

Actual and Necessary Expenses Incurred by Bennazar During the Interim Period

As summarized in Exhibit D and as set forth in detail in Exhibit F, Bennazar has incurred a total of $702.93 in expenses on behalf of the Retiree Committee during the Interim Period. These charges are intended to reimburse Bennazar's direct costs that are not included in Bennazar's hourly billing rates. Only clients who actually use services of the types set forth in Exhibit E of this Fee Application are separately charged for such services.

COMPENSATION REQUESTED

The services for which Bennazar seeks compensation in this Application were, at the time provided, necessary for and beneficial to the Retiree Committee. Bennazar performed these services economically, effectively, and efficiently. Bennazar submits that the compensation requested is reasonable considering the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Retiree Committee. Accordingly, Bennazar submits the compensation sought in this Application is warranted and should be approved.

1. Compensation Under Sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA.

Section 317 of PROMESA authorizes interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 316 of PROMESA to govern the Court's award of interim compensation. Section 316 of PROMESA provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered," and "reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 48 U.S.C. § 2176(a)(1), (2). Section 316(c) sets forth the criteria for such an award:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to a professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (1) the time spent on such services;
- (2) the rates charged for such services;
- (3) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;
- (4) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (5) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the restructuring field; and
- (6) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this subchapter or Title 11.

48 U.S.C. § 2176(c).

As analyzed below, Bennazar submits that the elements governing awards of compensation under PROMESA justify the allowance requested.

1. The Time and Labor Required

During the Interim Period, Bennazar's partners and associates spent 891.90 hours providing professional services to the Retiree Committee for which Bennazar seeks compensation on an hourly basis. Bennazar coordinated its efforts with co-counsel to prevent duplication of efforts and thereby not spend more time than required. Bennazar required this amount of time to conduct its investigations, research and analyze numerous, complex, novel issues arising from the Title III Cases, advise the Retiree Committee with respect to these issues, participate in resolution of these issues, and other tasks as described herein.

2. The Rates Charged for Such Services

During the Interim Period, Bennazar's hourly billing rates ranged from $150.00 to $250.00 for associates and $375.00 for partners. Based on the recorded hours expended by Bennazar's attorneys, the average hourly billing rate for Bennazar's services is $338.

Bennazar's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Bennazar fairly for the work of its attorneys and paraprofessionals, and to cover overhead and certain fixed and routine office expenses. Hourly rates vary with the experience and seniority of the individuals assigned. These hourly rates could be subject to adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions and are consistent with the rates charged elsewhere.

The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure that Bennazar charges in these cases are equivalent to the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure that Bennazar charges for similar complex corporate, securities, litigation, and restructuring matters, whether in court or otherwise, regardless of whether a fee application is required.

3. The Necessity of the Services and the Benefit to the Estate

As described herein, the services rendered by Bennazar were necessary for the efficient and economical resolution of the Retiree Committee's interests in the Title III Cases. All of those services directly benefitted the Retiree Committee.

4. The Reasonableness of the Time Spent, Based on the Complexity, Importance, Nature of the Issues

Bennazar's work involved the representation of the Title III Cases' largest creditor constituency—Puerto Rico's 167,000 retired teachers, police officers, firefighters, judges, municipal clerks, engineers, and other government workers of all categories—and Bennazar's professional services during the Interim Period were necessary to ensure that the interests of the Retirees were properly represented and safeguarded and that all matters relevant to the Retiree Committee were handled in an appropriate manner. The compensation requested is reasonable in light of those services.

5. The Experience, Reputation, and Ability of the Attorneys Providing Services

Bennazar attorneys are fully bilingual and have achieved a high degree of expertise and positive reputations in their respective fields. Bennazar's attorneys have extensive experience, knowledge, and resources in the areas of constitutional, civil, commercial, and administrative law, including complex legal issues specifically related to Puerto Rico's Retirement Systems enabling acts, civil litigation, as well as arbitration and mediation procedures.

6. Customary Compensation

The work for which Bennazar seeks compensation in this Application is of the type and nature for which Bennazar customarily would seek compensation at the rates identified in this Application. In addition, the compensation Bennazar seeks in this Application is comparable to the compensation it would have sought for comparable work outside of a Title III case.

Bennazar submits that the compensation requested is reasonable under all the factors considered under sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA and that the factors justify the allowance in full of Bennazar's compensation and reimbursement request.

In view of the foregoing, Bennazar respectfully requests that it be allowed interim compensation in the amount of $89,800.00 for services rendered during the Interim Period.

D. Reasonable and Necessary Expenses Incurred in Providing Services to the Retiree Committee.

For the Interim Period, Bennazar requests reimbursement of $702.93 for reasonable and necessary costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Retiree Committee.

Bennazar's normal billing rates do not take these costs and expenses into consideration. Rather, Bennazar bills each cost and expense to the applicable client. Because of the disparity between the different clients' requirements for expenses such as travel, computer-assisted research, teleconference services, postage, courier and messenger services, and photocopying, it is difficult to charge costs and expenses fairly and equitably by including them in Bennazar's ordinary billing rates. Accordingly, Bennazar generally charges each client for such costs and expenses separately, in each case, at Bennazar's costs.

Bennazar does not include the amortization of the cost of any investment, equipment, or capital outlay in its charges for these services.

Any services billed by a third-party vendor are charged to the Retiree Committee in the amount billed to and paid by Bennazar. Pursuant to Local Rule 2016-1(b)(7), Bennazar seeks reimbursement for air travel limited to the amount spent on coach fare.

Bennazar has made reasonable efforts to minimize its costs and expenses in connection with its representation of the Retiree Committee. Each of the costs and expenses Bennazar has incurred in providing professional services to the Retiree Committee was necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Retiree Committee.

STATEMENT BY BENNAZAR UNDER ¶ C(5) OF THE UST GUIDELINES

This engagement does not involve variations from Bennazar's standard and customary billing rates.

None of the professionals included in this Application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the Title III Cases.

The Application does not include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or routine preparation, review, or revision of time records.

The hourly rates specified in the Retention Application were effective January 1, 2017 and have not increased since that time. Bennazar's engagement letter with the Retiree Committee provides that Bennazar's scheduled hourly rates may be periodically adjusted, generally at the beginning of a calendar year. However, Bennazar did not make any adjustments to its hourly rates in January 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021 or 2022.

Consistent with the UST Guidelines and the Fee Examiner Memorandum, Bennazar submits monthly budgets to the Fee Examiner. Bennazar's budgets estimated fees for the Interim Period at $94,838.00. Bennazar is requesting compensation of $89,800.00 for the Interim Period which is $5,038.00 under the amount budgeted.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS AND NOTICE

It is possible that some professional time expended, or expenses incurred during the Interim Period are not reflected in the Application. Bennazar reserves the right to include such amounts in future fee applications.

Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, the Retiree Committee has provided notice of this Application to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the FOMB; (c) counsel to the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority; (d) counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors; (e) the Fee Examiner; and (f) all parties that have filed a notice of appearance with the Clerk of this Court, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and applicable provisions of the Local Rules, and requested such notice.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

No prior application for the relief requested by this Application has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, Bennazar respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (a) awarding Bennazar compensation for professional and paraprofessional services provided during the Interim Period in the amount of $89,800.00; (b) reimbursement of actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses incurred in the Interim Period in the amount of $702.93; and (c) granting such other relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: November 23, 2022
